CODE	CATEGORY	NF RVU	FAC RVU	RBRVS NF RATE	RBRVS FAC RATE
AZ099-031 Within large metropolitan areas a travel time basis may be appropriate. Code AZ099-031 would apply to Arizona's major metropolitan areas, to include Phoenix, Tucson, Flagstaff, Kingman and Yuma. This code would only be used when travel times are 45 minutes or more. 00	Special Services	-	-	BR	BR
AZ099-044 Services rendered in a night medical care facility: a charge in addition to the usual value of the procedure may be warranted. 00	Special Services	-	-	BR	BR
AZ099-099 Expert testimony at hearing, per hour. 00	Special Services	1.70	1.70	$ 110.00	$ 110.00
Δ99050 Since this code applies to times and dates that are typically outside of normal business hours, preauthorization requirements are not applicable. 00	Special Services	0.63	0.63	$ 40.63	$ 40.63
Δ99058 For purposes of this code, "emergency basis" shall be defined to include referrals from other physicians who consider medical issues serious enough to request the referring physician to disrupt their existing schedule to see a patient on an expedited basis. 00	Special Services	0.65	0.65	$ 41.99	$ 41.99
Δ99070 Supplies and materials normally necessary to perform the service are not separately reimbursable. Supplies and materials provided over and above those usually included with the office or other service rendered may be charged for separately. List each reimbursable drug or supply separately. Documentation showing actual costs associated with providing supplies and materials plus 15 percent to cover overhead costs will be adequate justification for payment. An applicable HCPCS code may be used in lieu of 99070 if the HCPC code more accurately describes the materials and supplies provided. This provision does not apply to retail operations involving drugs or supplies. Administration of drugs to patients in clinical setting are covered under this code. Prescription drugs provided to patients as a part of the overall treatment regimen but outside of the clinical setting are not included under this code. 00	Special Services	-	-	BR	BR
Δ99075 Use this code for medical testimony not covered by AZ99-099. 00	Special Services	-	-	BR	BR
